

Mt. Clemens, Mich.—John Price, bootblack, found silk glove in toe of shoe. Glove contained $3,500 worth of diamonds. Returned to Mrs. N. C. Starke, Cumberland, Md., owner.

London.—Sir Francis Allston Channing, born in the U. S., made baron by King George.

Boston.—Mitchell Galvin, former city clerk, selected as reading clerk Chicago convention by Harry S. New.

New York.—"Babe" McDonald, policeman and star shot-putter of Olympic team, received silver loving cup from newsboys of Longacre square.

Louisville.—Frank Norton, 7, fell from lumber pile. His head caught between pieces of timber. Hung by neck. Unconscious when rescued.

Egg Harbor, N. J.—Peevish bull charged motorcycle driven by Frank Parker. Machine wrecked. Bull thrown into ditch. Parker unhurt.

New York.—Col. Watterson gassing again. Telling New York what a great president Champ Clark would make.

New York.—Mrs. Mary Copeland Thaw celebrated 70th birthday in jail with son, Harry K.

Bloomington, Ill.—Daisy Martin of Hillsboro has left for Bangkok, Siam, to marry Edward Spillman.

Jacksonville, Ill.—Aviation, automobile and motorcycle race meet stopped when Harry Wells, Jr., 20, motorcyclist, killed, and George Hoover, aviator, thrown from biplane while landing.

Washington.—Following congressmen will go to Seattle and take testimony in Judge Hanford case: Graham, Illinois; Higgins, Connecticut, and McCoy, New Jersey.

Savannah, Mo.—Enos Stoner and Wm. Steffens given life sentence for murder of Deputy Sheriff W. R. Lykens, whom they shot during chicken raid.

Santiago.—Capt. Richard S. Hooker and 45 marines from U. S. gunboat Eagle landed at Felton, northeast coast of Oriente province.

Vienna.—Frau Vyk Kumoticka, first woman to be elected to Bohemian diet at Jungbunzlau, may not be allowed to take seat.

Pittsfield, Mass.—Because Francis J. Heney attacked Murray Crane at Chicago convention his engagement to speak at Y. M. C. A. here in January canceled.

New Orleans.—John Riplinger, pres. American Fruit and Steamship Co., father-in-law of C. B. Van Sickler, who killed F. P. Shaw, Chicago bank agent, in Honduras, says Chicagoan insulted Mrs. Van Sickler.

London.—Reported that Turks in all-day fight drove Italians from Lebda. 1,500 dead.

London.—Titanic board of inquiry will find that Californian defaulted from duty in ignoring distress signals of wrecked ship.

Spartanburg, S. C.—Pellagrophobia, insanity caused by fear of pellegra, has claimed several victims.

Bluefield, W. Va.—Hatfield-McCoy feud ended. A. J. McCoy,